Answers:

Question 1: What do you think Hank Aaron's most impressive accomplishment was?	Score:
Student Answer: He hit a lot of home runs in his career. Your Response: There are many possible answers, but among his most important accomplishments are: hitting 755 career home runs, making 24 all-star games, and having twenty consecutive seasons of hitting 20 or more home runs. He is also the all-time RBI leader.

Question 2: What are some of the ways in which Hank Aaron is honored for his accomplishments?	Score:
Student Answer: He made the Baseball Hall-of-Fame Your Response: Not only did he make the Hall-of-Fame but both the Milwaukee Brewers and Atlanta Braves retired his jersey number. Finally, Turner Field in Atlanta was built at 755 Hank Aaron Way SE.

Question 3: What do you think Hank Aaron might say if you asked him, "What was the biggest disappointment in your career?"	Score:
Student Answer: He had to retire. Your Response: Everyone has to retire at some point. There were few disappointments in Aaron's career, but he might say that he went 0-5 in his major league debut, or, that he was forced to endure prejudice. He'd probably say, however, that the biggest disappointment was only winning one World Series.
