

Arkansas Scavenger Hunt
For use with the Arkansas Interactive Map

Name _____

1. Bentonville serves as the world headquarters for _____, one of the largest companies in the world.

2. Located on the higher banks of the Arkansas River, Pine Bluff attracted many immigrants because its location protected it from _____.

3. Fort Smith is home to a portion of the _____ National Historic Trail, which commemorates the 900-mile walk that over 100,000 Native Americans were forced to endure because of the U.S. Government's Indian Removal Act.

4. Located in northwest Arkansas, _____ is the home of the University of Arkansas.

5. Arkansas' only national park, _____, is known as "America's Spa."

6. The Battle of _____, waged between March 7-8 1862, marked the end of Confederate forces in Missouri during the American Civil War. Confederate forces in Arkansas would soon be removed after the battle.

7. In 1924, a 40-carat diamond was found in _____, which was said to be worth millions of dollars.

8. America's largest woodpecker, the Ivory-billed, was possibly sighted in the _____, in eastern Arkansas in 2005. Prior to 2005, scientists believed the woodpecker was most likely extinct.