

Imagine: Walking the Brooklyn Bridge

Imagine you are walking over the Brooklyn Bridge. Read the description and draw the picture to the best of your ability.

Beneath your feet, wooden planks creak softly as you stroll high above a wide, glittering river. Steel cables rise like harp strings into the sky, holding up towering stone arches that frame the bustling city beyond. The wind carries the sound of car horns and the faint smell of pretzels, while the skyline stretches ahead like a row of shimmering giants waiting to welcome you.
